Devotees should worship the nature as Lord Ayyappa

The nature around Sabarimala is so precious and it carries a divinity. It is so the responsibility of the devotees to keep it clean and safe always, said the cheif priest of Sabarimala V N Vasudevan Namboothiri.

He added that to make it happen devotees should obey the rules here. They shouldn't throw the clothes into the holy river Pamba. They also keep away from littering the place with plastic wastes. They should climb the hills in the belief that the nature is infilled with the divine charm of the god.
