Anson is still strong as he won the Federation Cup for Kerala

Anson knows to defend the opposing team from scoring goals. He also now knows how to protect the devotees coming to Sabarimala

Former Indian football team member KA Anson is in charge of traffic safety at Pampa from U Turn to Triveni. He was a member of the Indian football team and a long-time member of the Kerala Police team in 1997-99.

The Kerala Police Football Team, which is a stronghold of Indian football tradition, brought the Federation Cup to Kerala for the first time. On April 29, 1990, the Kerala Police won the trophy for the first time in Thrissur's Municipal Stadium gallery. The following year, the police were successful in Kannur. Anson was one of the key players on the team twice.

K.T. Chacko, Mehboob, Baburaj, VP Sathyan, Kurikesh Mathew, Alex Abraham, Sharafali, Jabir, Tobias, Rajendran Kaladharan, Thomas, Santosh, Zakir, Pappachan, Liston, Habeeb Rahman, IM Vijayan, and Kurukesh Mathew were also the members of the dream team. Anson, who was the coach of the Kerala Police team, is currently working as an Inspector at KAP2. It is the sixth time that Anson wields the security charge of Sabarimala.

Huge rush at Sabarimala

Sabarimala witness a huge rush of devotees with only a few days left for Makara Vilakku. The queue at Sabarimala on Saturday continued till Saramkuthi and to Marakootam. Devotees from the states of Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, and Telangana have reached the most during the Mandala season. In view of the rush in concern with the Makara Vilakku, various arrangements have been made under the guidance of various departments.

Sannidhanam Special Officer S Sujit Das said that the police are well equipped to control the rush and provide darshan to all the devotees who arrive at Sabarimala. The devotees who have done with the darshan are instructed in various languages through loudspeakers that they should return to Pampa. As of 7 pm, 58,578 people had visited Sabarimala. This is the estimated number of people who have reached Sabarimala via Pampa. It is estimated that the flow of devotees will increase in the coming days.
